WOMAN AND HER INFLUENCE.

The Theme of Alumnae Address By Dr. Yates.

The annual reunion of the alumnae of Greensboro Female College was held last night in the college chapel. A large number of former students and graduates of the college were present and with the number of visitors from the city and out of town filled the large auditorium. The hall was beautifully and most tastefully decorated in the national colors—flags and bunting were on the wall, hanging from the ceiling and festooned over the lights—and with the fair students of this old institution presented a most pleasing appearance.

The exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. Jno. N. Cole, of Durham. This was followed by an instrumental solo by Miss Black which was exquisitely rendered.

The Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., of the North Carolina confeience, delivered the address to the alumnae yesterday evening. The speaker took as his theme "Woman's Influence against Infidelity." The key note of his address was given in his text, as the speaker termed it, which consisted of a series of questions in regard to woman and her sphere: "Is woman becoming more masculine and less feminine and womanly? Is she deserting her home and taking more interest in base ball, foot ball, tennis, golf and other outdoor sports?" In a thoughtful address, sparkling and epigrammatic gems, abounding in well rounded periods and filled with good advice the speaker urged the young ladies to remain womanly, modest and gentle.

One of the evidences of infidelity is the effort on the part of Elizabeth Cody Stanton and others to make what they term a woman's Bible. These he characterized as female Bob Ingersol's and said they were evidently laboring under the impression that man wrote the Bible and not God. Another evidence he declared was the desire of some women to vote and in this way show their equality with man. The granting of suffrage would expose woman to the possibility of serving on the jury and of duty as police, neither of which is suited to her, and as an American citizen in war she would be worse than useless." While attempting to right her supposed wrongs she may wrong her rights." He gave several instances in which women have attempted to right wrongs and succeeded only making disorder and causing bloodshed.

Dr. Yates pleaded with the girls to remember that in the home woman is most womanly and it is here she is enthroned and sceptered and over her husband and for the good her country she wields the greatest and best influence.

The address was well recieved and the distinguished divine fully upheld the reputation he justly bears as one of North Carolina's most eloquent speakers and preachers.

Following the address was a most beautiful song sung by Misses Lola Carraway, Nan Wood and Messrs. Crawford and Bradley.

After the announcement of today's program, benediction was pronounced by the Rev. M. H. Vestal.

THE ART EXHIBIT.

In the parlors on the first floor is the art exhibit. This exhibit is composed of a portion of the work done by the students in the art department of the college. Altogether 167 different studies are presented and everyone of them is good. Miss Heiskell is to be complimented on the good work done by her pupils and from the character of the work, her department must be the equal, if not superior, to any other similar department in the state.

Prayer and Fasting.

The president of the Woman's Board of Mission of the M. E. church, South, has set apart Friday, May 27th, as a day of fasting and prayer for God's presence with the meeting which is to be held in Greensboro June 2-8. A prayer service will be conducted in the ladies' parlor of West Market Street Methodist church at 4:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon. All ladies are invited to attend.

SPAIN'S POLICY OUTLINED.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP OREGON

American Warships Concentrating Before Guantanamo, Near Santiago—Troops Violent.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, May 26—Premier Sagasta, in an interview this morning partially outlined Spain's policy by saying there will be no fight at Santiago de Cuba unless Admiral Cervera desires it. The Americans will find the Santiago ports, Cervera's ships and the harbor at that place very different from those destroyed by Admiral Dewey at Manila. If the Americans are waiting for a naval battle to take place before they attempt to invade Cuba it will be necessary for them to exercise considerable patience.

A SPANISH REPORT.

Madrid, May 26—A report is being circulated here, which is alleged to have come from Manila which says that the American cruiser Baltimore has been disabled by an interior explosion.

THEY'LL DO FOR HIM.

London, May 26—Letters which have been received here from the Canaries say that Admiral Camari has been detained at Cadiz with his fleet because the wrong projectiles were furnished him.

SPY IDENTIFIED.

Key West, May 26—Seven persons this morning identified the Spanish spy who was arrested yesterday as Lieutenant Sobral Delomes. The talkative henchman Sobral sent to Atlanta will be tried there immediately.

A SPANISH SCHEME.

London, May 26—The English government is watching with interest Spain's obvious intention of granting France the permanent and free use of Centax. Russia is also exercising similar vigilance in regard to Port Mahon. The action taken by the Spaniards has for its object the securing of the support of France and negotiations for peace with a view of retaining the Philippines. England is prepared to resort to any means to prevent France from obtaining possession of Centax.

FORT HILARO SHELLED.

Madrid, May 26—Financial differences threaten a crisis in the Spanish cabinet. The Herald today published a despatch from Havana which says that American warships shelled Fort Hilaro, while others reconnoitered in Cardenas bay where the inhabitants are erecting fortifications. Twelve of the American warships made a demonstration at Cienfuegos.

SURRENDER PHILIPPINES?

Washington, May 26—It is widely reported that President McKinley has offered to surrender the Philippines and to refrain from bombarding Porto Rico on the condition that the Spaniards will evacuate Cuba. The officials decline to discuss the matter.

STILL REFUSES.

New York, May 26—Colonel Appleton said this morning that the seventh regiment still refused to volunteer.

LONG TIME COMING.

Hong Kong, May 26—Capt. Coucha, commanding the Spanish cruiser Don Juan de Austria, says the commanders of the Spanish fleet at Manila knew the fight was a hopeless one, but public opinion had to be enforced. The captain wished to meet Admiral Dewey in the open but Admiral Montijo forbade this. The engines of the Don Antonia Duella were broken and the Don Juan de Austria had only two guns capable of firing while the Marquis De Evro had only one.

A YELLOW REPORT.

Madrid, May 26—A dispatch from Lanita says the Americans attempted to land arms and ammunition at Binacayan. The Spaniards were in ambush and allowed the Yankees to land and then swooped down on them and routed the Americans and succeeded in capturing the supplies.

AMERICAN FLEET MOBILIZING.

Madrid, May 26—A dispatch from Havana says American warships are concentrating before Guantanamo near Santiago apparently for the purpose of attacking Admiral Cervera.

HOT TIME IN PHILIPPINES.

Madrid, May 26—A dispatch from Manila via Hong Hong, says a hundred Spanish soldiers evacuated Corrydor Island on the sixteenth from lack of ammunition. A terrible rebellion has broken out in the province of Panagasinan, the insurgents are pillaging and massacreeing. Admiral Dewey is attempting to furnish arms to the insurgents. The rebel chief Matablo, of Zambalo province, has submitted to General Agusti. The Carolines have revolted and natives are perpetrating frightful violences.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP THE OREGON.

Key West, May 26—The log of the Oregon shows that while coaling at Rio Janeiro Spanish sympathizers attempted to blow up the battleship. Thirty dynamite bombs were found in the bunkers of the ship. The Brazilian authorities are unable to detect the miscreants.

SAILORS AND MARINES FURIOUS.

Key West, May 26—Reputable citizens believe that martial law is now the only way to prevent a race war, owing to the report yet unconfirmed that a marine was shot by a negro in the streets last night. The streets are thronged today by thousands of marines, blue jackets and soldiers who are threatening vengeance. Several lynchings are imminent. Northern seamen and troops are particularly violent against the blacks. Sheriff Knight has difficulty in preserving order and Commodore Remey is vainly trying to restrain the fury of the sailors.

FUSION IS DEAD.

The Democratic Convention in Session at Raleigh.

Special to the Telegram.

Raleigh, May 26, 2 p.m.—The State democratic convention which is in session here today is composed of an exceptionally fine lot of men and all sections of the state are well represented.

At this time enough has been seen to warrant the conclusion that the honor of the state is safe and that fusion is as dead as a door nail.

The convention is presided over by Col. J. S. Carr, of Durham, as temporary chairman. The committee on permanent organization selected Hon. Chas. M. Cooke, late secretary of state, as permanent chairman. The convention adjourns until 2:30 p. m.

GLADSTONE LYING IN STATE.

England Pays a Touching Tribute to Her Honored Son.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, May 26—This morning at six o'clock a large silent crowd began to slowly file bareheaded past the body of William E. Gladstone who was England's greatest statesman, lying in state in the hall of Westminster. At that hour many thousands were waiting to be admitted into the hall, many of them wearing complete mourning and the others partially dressed in mourning attire. Lady Harcourt, wife of Sir William Harcourt, was among the first to view the body of the dead statesman. The body rested on a bier which was draped in simple folds of black silk and which was resting on a black dais surrounded by a pall of silk. The coffin is made of two kinds of oak with plain brass handles. Four large and massive silver candle sticks have been placed around the dais. Seventy-five thousand persons have passed by and paid their tribute to the distinguisehd dead up to noon today.

THE GRADUATING EXERCISES

This Morning at The Greensboro Female College.

DR. IVEY PRESENTED THE BIBLES

Eight Young Ladies Receive Their Diplomas and Others Receive Their Certificates.

The graduating exercises of the class of 1898 from Greensboro Female College were held this morning in the large auditorium in the college. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. S. Creasy, of Winston. He asked divine guidance for the young ladies who today go from the walls of the institution and whose sphere of life, is broadened and widened.

The essays of three graduates were read: "The Social Life in Athens in the Fifth Century, B. C." is the subject of the essay by Miss Nora Hamlin in which the writer portrayed most accurately and vividly the intellectual, domestic, athletic, dramatic phases of the life of the Athenians. She drew a sharp contrast between the social life of the present century and that of the fifth and showed the superiority of the latter. Miss Pattie LeGrand read a biographical sketch of the Rev. Eli W. Caruthers. The material for the sketch was meagre and Miss LeGrand deserves much credit for her comprehensive biography of this preacher, philanthopist and teacher.

The singing of that plaintive song, Way Down Upon the Swanee River, by Misses Gorrell, Weathersbee, Wynne and Black was extremely sweet and beautiful. The essay, Life in America as Revealed by Her Novelists read by Miss Alberta B. Capel, considers life as reflected by American novels and sketches and traces the life of the simple and primitive Puritans and of the gradual development into the present complex and more pretentions life. Following the essay of Miss Capel was a most delightful duet exquisitely rendered by Miss Orr and Mr. Parker.

President Peacock presented certificates to the following young ladies: For ability to write from 100 to 133 words of new matter per minute certificates in stenography were presented to Misses Lula Page, Hattie King, Eva Evans, Fannie Harris and Belle Raper. Certificates of proficiency in typewriting were presented to Miss Lula Page and Ethel Diffee. Certificates in bookkeeping were presented to Misses Jessie Bell and Fannie Harris. Miss Mary O. Black was presented with a diploma from the music department on vocal and instrumental music and harmony.

The Rev. Thos. N. Ivey, in a gracesul speech telling of the influence of the holy book on the lives of individnals and nations, presented to each member of the graduating class a copy of the Bible.

President Peacock then presented to the graduates their diplomas and made a touching talk to them, speaking of their faithfulness to college duties and of the friendship borne each one by the faculty and trustees of the college and what the college would expect of them in the future.

Miss Orr sweetly and very prettily sang "Good-bye, Sweet Day," and most appropriate indeed was the song to the occasion.

After the singing of the doxology, the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. M. H. Hoyle.

THE CONVENTION'S WORK.

Messrs. Shaw and Boone a Strong Team for Judicial Honors.

The judicial convention yesterday at Durham did admirable work. A slight error crept into the telegraphic report sent this paper yesterday. The fourth ballot which resulted in the nomination of Thomas J. Shaw for Judge stood: Shaw 161; Parker 149, and not 159 as stated yesterday. Guilford county democrats desire to thank their friends from the other counties who came to their assistance and cast their ballots for Mr. Shaw.

THE NOMINEE FOR JUDGE.

Thomas Jefferson Shaw is a native of Moore county. He is a man of sterling character, one whom any people may well delight to honor. As a private citizen he is quiet, modest and unassuming, true to his friends, with a kindly feeling for all mankind—a consistent Christian gentleman.

As a lawyer, Mr. Shaw ranks highest among those who know him best and have watched his course since he first entered the bar fourteen years ago. He is courteous, polite and dignified. He is able, just and fearless. He possess in an admirable degree the necessary qualities for the discharge of the duties of the position to which he has been nominated.

Mr. Shaw is 37 years old, and began to practice law in Troy in 1884. Three years later he removed to his native county, Moore, where he formed a partnership with Mr. W. C. Douglas, now of Raleigh. This firm did a good business and were a formidable team at the bar. In 1893 Mr. Shaw moved to Greensboro and in the fall of that year he formed a partnership with Hon. A. M. Scales, of this city. Since then our people have known him, and his ability, dignified bearing and modest manners are recognized and admired to such an extent that his adopted people have honored their adopted son with the nomination for the important office of superior court judge. He will wear the ermine well and honorably. He will administer the functions of the high office of judge with dignity and with justice, properly tempered with mercy. Elect him and in doing so the state will honor herself.

THE NOMINEE FOR SOLICITOR.

The writer does not know Mr. R. B. Boone, the democratic nominee for solicitor of the Fifth district, personally. The fact, however, that he was nominated on the first ballot over so splendid a gentleman as S. M. Gattis, and in a district where reside so many bright and able lawyers, is sufficient guarantee that no mistake was made in selecting him. He is about 40 years of age, a good citizen, a splendid lawyear and an eloquent speaker. The solicitorship will be safe in his hands. He is clean and able and will take care of the state's interests.

Shaw and Boone—a model team. The Fifth district convention has done a splendid work.

SPAIN'S BOATS AT MARTINIQUE.

The Terror, as a Last Resort, is Borrowing Coal from the Alicante.

St. Pierre, Martinique, May 24—The Spanish torpedo-boat destroyer Terror and the hospital ship Alicante still remain at Fort de France. It is believed that the Terror has completed all her repairs.

Finding it impossible, owing to the action of the authorities, to recoal here from the British steamer Twickenham, which has on board 2,800 tons of coal for the Spanish warships in West Indian waters, the commander of the Terror has been compelled to get a supply from the bunkers of the Alicante, and the work of transhipment is now going on. The authorities, however, will not permit the Terror to take from the Alicante more than coal enough to carry her to the nearest Spanish port.

It is thought that both the Terror and Alicante will sail as soon as the former finishes coaling.

A TRUCULENT EXAMPLE.

As a good example of what the man in politics will swallow we submit the following from the Progressive Farmer of this week in speaking of the populist convention:

It was plainly and painfully evident, when the convention assembled, that the fight was on in dead earnest. The leaders of each faction had marshalled and had well drilled his forces, and for a short time things looked squally. But the convention did not lose its temper, and after the organization was completed everything was practically harmonious and the best platform ever put forth by any party in this state was adopted unanimously. And since the convention adjourned there seems to be no faction, but unity and harmony throughout. Neither faction got all it at first desired, but conservatism prevailed, a healthy compromise succeeded, and now we trust all other parties will come down promptly and accept the situation.

For several weeks before the convention met the Farmer violently opposed a part of the very platform which the convention adopted and which it now terms the best "platform ever put forth by any party in this state." While the Progressivg Farmer has been somewhat of a howler in the past it has been far and away the best and most scrupulous populist paper in the state. We acknowledge that it is with genuine regret that we see it ostentatiously put on the collar of Mr. Butler. Of course it was not incumbent on the Farmer to bolt its party because its own individual opinion did not prevail, but it need not have stooped to lick the hand that smote it. To buy harmony in that fashion is to pay rather highly for it. Silence would have been infinitely more becoming.

It was a pleasure to announce through our special of yesterday that Mr. T. J. Shaw of this city had been chosen to bear the banner of his party in the approaching contest for the judgeship. Mr. Shaw is a learned lawyer of unimpeachable integrity, and if chosen will be a credit to the judiciary of the state and an honor to the town and bar of which he is a member. The banner will be quite safe in the hands of Mr. Shaw whether democracy wins or loses in November. With such a candidate it should win.

We published yesterday a clipping from an exchange announcing that a citizen of Greensboro had been sending out circulars to millers setting forth the great profits to be made by adulterating flower with talc. The Telegram has constantly urged the importance of new industries but it wishes to explicitly disclaim any pride in this one.

The public will wait with some interest for the thirteen democratic papers waiting to go over to populism to open their batteries.

We trust that it will not prove that it was air instead of the Spanish fleet that was bottled up in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba.

The new call for seventy-five thousand volunteers should give those who have been anxious to get in under the first call an opportunity to serve their country. There will be more time to drill and equip this second contingent since the exingencies of war will hardly demand immediate active service of them. The first call will be first sent to the front thus affording more time in camp to the second. The call is doubtless more a provision for a possible than for an actual necessity.

Admiral Cervera has refrained from asking Sampson if he can play mumble-the-peg. He might ask the board of strategy.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT.

Of Oak Ridge Institute—People From All Parts of the Country.

Correspondence Telegram.

Oak Ridge, N. C. May 25th.

More that 5,000 people assembled at the Institute yesterday to witness the exercises of the 46th annual commencement. They were from all parts of this and adjoining states, and few audiences could boast of more beauty and culture.

The oratorical contest of the seniors came off at 10 a. m. The Athenian society was represented by J. W. McGehee, Madison; J. M. Moser, Alamance; H. L. Powell, Surry; Peter Cooper, Siberia, and W. L. Cridlebough, High Point. The Philomathean society by J. T. Bennett, Nebraska; J. W. Sherrill, South Carolina; H. L. Coble, Guilford; A. D. Ivie, Leaksville, and M. V. Fulp, Kernersville. The Gravely medals were awarded to H. L. Powell, of Athenian society and A. D. Ivie of Philomathean society. These medals were given by J. O. W. Gravely and brother, of Rocky Mount, in honor of their brother who died a few years since and who was a student of the school.

The picnic on the ground was a social and interesting feature. Merry groups here and there laughed and chattered gaily under the spreading oaks on the campus. At 2 p. m. Hon. Frank Spruill, of Louisburg, delivered a most eloquent and charming address on the subject of Our Country.

Diplomas were presented to twenty-eight young men in the literary department, thirty-four in commercial, fifteen in shorthand and two in telegraphy, making a total for the year of 79.

The enrollment for the year was announced as 274, being much larger than ever before.

The medals were delivered in a graceful speech by Prof. Whitsett, of Whitsett Institute. The annual reception at night was a most enjoyable affair, being attended by large numbers.

So Tired! So Tired!
Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any oatural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

General News in a Nutshell.

Riociotti Garibaldi, son of the great Garibaldi has temporarily given up his idea of taking an expedition to Cuba in aid of the insurgents, because he believes the prospects are good for a republican uprising in Spain; and in this anticipated movement he wishes to take part. Meanwhile, he says, thousand Italians in and around Rome are enrolling themselves "on paper" for the Cuban cause.

The much-talked-of statute of Balzac ordered by the societies de Gens de Lettres and exhibited by Rodin in this year's Salon will probably be refused by the society, as it has passed a resolution protesting against the model, in which it "refuses to recognize a statute of Balzac." The sculptor will either bring suit against the society or accept the offer made for the statute by M. Auguste Pellerin, a wealthy amateur.

The growing bad temper of Lord Chief Justice Russell, who treats juries roughly and impatiently, and who "rattles" nervous witnesses by the severity of his manner, is a subject of much discussion in England just at present. One of the London papers says that no man who ever sat on the bench could put so much indignation and passionate anger in his gaze as can the lord chief justice.

Lyulph Stanley, a brother of the Scotch Earl of Airlie, has enlisted in the volunteer army of Colorado. He went to Greeley, Col., in 1881, to take possession of a large tract of land purchased for him by his father and has since been a successful cattle raiser.

The New York Tribune suggests that Rudyard Kipling, the author of "The Ship That Found Herself," might find abundant material for another story in his most spirited style, to be entitled "The Ships That Couldn't Find One Another."

To Miss Pearl Listebargor, a former Missouri girl, has fallen the honor of having been chosen as the most beautiful girl in Iowa, to represent the state at the Transmississippi Exposition. Her portrait will be on a state souvenir which will be distributed at the exposition.

Jerry Rusk is responsible for the story that when an Ohio congressman went to Phil Sheridan's father to look over a boy for West Point he inclined to favor another brother. The father said: "Don't take him. He's full of peace. Take Phil; he is full of fight. He fights all the boys about here."

The Oregon Leaves Jupiter.

Jacksonville, May 25—A special to The Times-Union and Citizen from West Jupiter, Fla., says: The Oregon left here at 4 o'clock this morning. It is impossible to get any information whatever. Ensign Johnson came ashore for orders. He declined to be interviewed, reporting all in good health.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

MADE HIM DIVIDE.

Policeman Jordan Acted as Arbitrator in the Matter.

This morning three Cherokee boys who had volunteered and gone to Raleigh in a military company were here enroute home. Just before the company was mustered in the announcement was made that if any one was dissatisfied he would then be allowed to withdraw and return to his home. These three, Rogers, Watson and Erwin withdrew. Capt. Holt, of Burlington gave them transportation to Greensboro and ten dollars extra to be divided between the three.

Arriving in Greensboro this morning Rogers, who held the ten dollars and had refused to divide, accosted Policeman Jordan and told him they had no money and wanted something to eat. Erwin was on guard and took a turn with the policeman himself and informed him of the money given Rogers by Capt. Holt and of his refusal to divide. The big policeman then took a turn with Rogers and advised him to shell out and make an even division with his comrades, which he reluctantly and with some confusion did.

Literary Exercises at A. & M.

The literary exercises of the college quota of the A. &. M. last night pleased the large audience of white and colored and marked an epoch of literary greatness for Prof. Butler, the composer of all the pieces recited by those who represented the quota. The spectators were so enthused over the good work that is being done at the A. & M. that one remarked: "the work of the democrats in giving us this school will never be forgotten." This p. m. at 7:30 sharp the graduating exercises will begin. On this occasion Dr. Mayo will deliver the annual address. President Dudley requests all lovers of civilization to be present.
